Requirements for Visiting Clergy within Ireland and from outside Ireland who wish to minister at a once-off event

If a person is present for a single event in a parish:

- They should sign the sacristy register to declare their presence for a particular date and time.
- They must provide a letter of good standing from their bishop or superior for inspection by the parish priest or other delegated person, and this should be noted beside their signature in the sacristy register.

Requirements for Visiting Clergy from outside the Republic of Ireland who wish to be involved in ministry in the Diocese beyond a once-off event

In advance of the intended visit, and before beginning any ministry, a visiting cleric (or any person who wishes to be involved in pastoral ministry in the Diocese of Galway) must:

- Write seeking permission from the bishop of the Diocese of Galway, giving details of the duration and location of the visit and the type of ministry involved.
- Provide name and contact details for their bishop or superior, and contact details of the church authority to which they are incardinated.
- Provide a testimonial letter from their bishop or religious superior.
- Complete a declaration of good standing form and have their church authority complete the confirmation of good standing section: – see pages 3 and 4 of this protocol document.
- If coming from outside Ireland, they must provide a police clearance certificate from their originating country, confirming that they have no criminal convictions.
- Undertake a vetting check through the Western Province Vetting Service. (See pages 5 to 7 of this protocol document.)
- Attend a safeguarding information session with Mr Kevin Duffy, Diocesan Safeguarding Officer, and familiarise themselves with the Safeguarding Policy Handbook and other policies/forms for the diocese:
www.galwaydiocese.ie/safeguarding/policies

CHILD SAFEGUARDING POLICY STATEMENT

DIOCESE OF GALWAY, KILMACDUAGH & KILFENORA

As a constituent member of the Catholic Church in Ireland, we recognise and uphold the dignity and rights of all children, are committed to ensuring their safety and well-being, and will work in partnership with parents/guardians to do this. We recognise each child as a gift from God, and we value and encourage the participation of children in all activities that enhance their spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual, and social development.

All Church personnel (including clergy, religious, staff, and volunteers) have a responsibility to safeguard children through promoting their welfare, health, and development in a safe and caring environment that supports their best interests and prevents abuse.

If you have a suspicion, concern, knowledge, or allegation that a child is being or has been abused, please contact our designated Diocesan Liaison Person:

Mr Kevin Duffy
